BOARD CORRESPONDENCE:

Supervisor Lewandowski informed the board that he has researched the video recording request and is meeting with professionals in the field.

Trustee Dudas stated SEMCOG discussed explaining millages to residents so they understand what is on the ballot, green laser lights are being used to deter geese, population decrease on average of 500 people annually in St. Clair County, stressing importance of buildings being ADA compliant and the use of automatic door openers.

Trustee Reno questioned the 3 season sales of trailers at the campground, feels the zoning is noncompliant.

Dudas asked about Benches or crosswalk to get across Lapeer Rd by Dorchester court or somewhere before 32nd St. crossing.

Museum Grand opening and Fishing Clinic
